A collaborative endeavor to serve the Camden community providing the services you need, in one location

Helloooo November!

It's the first day of November as I sit here finishing the edits on our November newsletter and I'm currently watching light snow falling out of my office window. I've never been a fan of being cold and so sometimes my thoughts go to sadness about the winter hibernation ahead as I long for spring and sunshine to return. It was just a few years ago when I started to realize how the changing season and thoughts of the cold winter drained my joy of the fabulous fall colors and the chilly but breathtaking views that can only be captured in the fresh, new snow. I know I'm not alone in this. You either love the snow or start to notice some pre-winter blues coming forward. To help stop the descent into winter-blues, consider a proactive approach.

- Mindfulness:
 - Find something beautiful and choose to notice it
 - Notice your breath, take a moment for a full, deep breath.
 - Also, get off autopilot and return your attention back to your present moment.
- Get moving: Exercise is scientifically proven to reduce depression symptoms
- Eat well - choose nutritious meals and slow your pace eating as you enjoy your flavors
- Get social - Social engagements with friends and family are scientifically proven to improve both mental and physical health outcomes.

Want to learn more tips? Join me for the November Masterclass in Coping with Holiday stress on November 29th at 5pm. (see more on page 2). After that, make sure you check out the new events and services that have joined us at the CLC over the last month and our exciting research in partnership with Syracuse University. Until next month, take care and stay warm!

Jessica Perusse

Spotlight of the month:

In November we celebrate Veteran's Day but maybe people are unaware of what a Veteran actually is. For our November monthly theme and spotlight we are choosing to focus on and celebrate Veteran's and Military Families to recognize and celebrate these important members of our community.

This year the theme is "Taking Care of Our Military Families", this is an opportunity to learn about all the resources there are for these families in your community. There are important resources for those veterans that are transitioning home after being away for so long.

Veterans make up a large portion of our rural population and there tends to be few resources available for our Veterans close to home. Many Veterans choose to live in rural communities following service instead of returning to larger urban cities.

Join us this month in honoring all of the Veterans and Military families in our community this year.

Thanksgiving Donations

We are getting ready for the Holidays here at the Life Center. This year we will be collecting donations for Thanksgiving meals for families in need. We will be collecting these donations through Wednesday, November 15th and can be dropped off during our office hours.

Items for collection include: stuffing mix, gravy mix, canned vegetables, instant potatoes, cranberry sauce, corn bread mix, and any other non-perishable items to complete a Thanksgiving meal.

If you don't want to shop but would still like to make a donation, feel free to stop in or simply scan the QR code and it will link you directly to our donation page.

Are you a local business that would like to sponsor a families Thanksgiving meal? Consider a $40 donation to cover the cost of 1 family meal and we will do the shopping for you.

Masterclass Offering!

What is a Masterclass?

A masterclass is a high-quality and relatively brief learning experience jam-packed with in-depth knowledge. During a masterclass, an expert instructor offers hands-on learning to a group of students. Usually, the participants have good prior knowledge of the subject, but it's not uncommon to offer a masterclass for first-timers as well.

For the month of November, join Jessica Perusse, LCSW-R for a Masterclass on Navigating Holiday Stress. Learn higher level skills above the basic advice of "just do a little less" or your friends advice to "have a glass of wine" Date: Wednesday, November 29th at 5pm RSVP's required. Email: Jessica@ctttcounseling.com

Quote of the Month
